

Informing the stakeholders

Informing stakeholders is a key for scaling up of proven interventions for mainstreaming small millets in regular diets!

Project interventions

1. Undertaking policy studies
2. Synthesising from practice & sharing policy lessons
3. Bringing out publications, protocols, tool kits and manuals
4. Organising policy consultation workshops

Assessment of community level processing unit, Koraput

Study of introduction of millets in PDS, Karnataka

Gender study of small millet food enterprises

Results so far...

1. Undertook study of small millet processing units, small millet food enterprises and millet introduction in public distribution system in Karnataka
2. Published
 - Two outcome stories
 - Three policy papers
 - Protocol on ToT on recipe demonstration
 - Audio visual training manual on small millet processing
 - Guidance note for new entrants to small millet processing
 - Technical manual on small millet food products
 - Fifteen papers in national and international journals and conferences
3. Organised/took part in policy consultation meetings in Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Delhi and Odisha

Scaling up Small Millet Post-harvest and Nutritious Food Products Project