Dear Mr. Vivek Kumar Jaiswal,

Greetings from Tata-Dhan Academy.

Sub: Offer of Admission to the Ninth Post Graduate Diploma in Development Management (PDM) Programme (2008-2010)

We take great pleasure in inviting you to join the Post Graduate Diploma in Development Management (PDM-IX) Programme. You have been selected for admission to PDM being offered by Tata-Dhan Academy. We congratulate you for your good performance in DMAT and further processes of selection. We also commend your enthusiasm to pursue a career in the development sector through the Academy.

Poverty reduction by harnessing contextually relevant development potential is a complex process involving the inter play of social, economic and political forces. It is our belief that socially sensitive, committed and talented persons like you can accelerate the development process and make it more humane, especially for the disadvantaged and marginalized segments of society. The world has immense opportunities and challenges for you.

Workers in development, like in any other meaningful endeavour, require knowledge of certain basic concepts, some practical skills acquired through experience, a perspective and a definite value orientation and professional ethics. The purpose of PDM is to equip you in gaining the required development knowledge, skills, and attitude for working with the marginalised segment of the society.

As a person with strong social concern to actively participate in the development process, you have chosen the right field i.e. poverty reduction and rural development. The Academy takes pride in providing apposite learning ambience to equip oneself for this purpose.

The Programme begins on July 7, 2008 (Monday). There will be an "Induction and Orientation Programme" from July 7, 2008 to August 2, 2008 to prepare you for effective participation in the PDM. Regular classes will commence from August 4, 2008. Your participation in the "Induction and Orientation Programme" is compulsory.

Please confirm your Acceptance of our Offer of Admission on or before July 3, 2008 by telephone or email besides sending us the filled-in acceptance form enclosed herein. The terms and conditions and general instructions are also enclosed herewith. Please read them carefully and abide by the same.

Note: A printout of the same letter has already been sent to your permanent address by courier. This is for your information.

With best wishes,
